Press Release

IPAC names Jody Henderson National Accounts Manager

Dublin, CA - IPAC is pleased to announce the appointment of Jody Henderson as its National Accounts Manager, effective January 18, 2010, with both sales representation and technical support responsibilities in the southeastern and southern United States, he will be based in Spring, Texas.

Jody Henderson received his BS in Chemical Engineering from the University of Pittsburgh in Pittsburgh, PA. He brings to IPAC a distinguished career in the areas of national account sales, sales management and marketing for petroleum additives and finished lubricants.

Jody spent the initial years of his career with the Lubrizol Corporation where he progressed through various levels of sales and sales management. Next, he worked for Pennzoil and PQS in various marketing, sales and sales management positions including distributor channel manager. Jody has spent the last nine years as the National Accounts Sales Manager for the CITGO Petroleum Corporation.

IPAC is a full service manufacturing and sales company based in Dublin, California with manufacturing locations in Illinois, Louisiana, Texas and California. IPAC celebrated its 10th anniversary this past February and will continue its long term growth in the Automotive, Heavy Duty, Industrial, Driveline, Chemical and Fuel additive marketplace. IPAC was named in a recent industry publication as one of 5 major package additive sellers.
